

ARTIST FAMILY TREE

For this activity, we want to chart the lineage of our creative ancestry. In column one, add the names of various creators whose work inspires you (artists, musicians, writers, philosophers, architects, choreographers, etc.) In column two, list their formative inspirations and influences.

1. MAKE A LIST OF YOUR FAVOURITE CREATORS:

2. RESEARCH THEIR INFLUENCES:

“The family tree of humanity is much more interconnected than we tend to think”
 —Scott Hershberger, Scientific American, October 5, 2020

CULTIVATE CREATIVITY

1. ROOTS: OUR FOUNDATION What playful pastime did you enjoy when you were a child? (finger painting, making cakes in an Easy Bake Oven, cut & paste, colouring, etc.)

2. RIBS: OUR BRANCHES Consider your natural superpower, creativity. What might you like to try for fun? (singing in a choir, dancing, drawing, playing ukulele)

3. LEAVES: OUR FUTURE Where might you be able to expand or grow your creativity?

4. NOURISHMENT OUR INSPIRATION Pick one of your favourite creators and expand on why you admire them. Consider: what support will you need while you write?
